Show Your True Colours
Casual Day and Whole School Breakfast
Tomorrow Thursday 20th November

Dear Families,

I hope you can join us for breakfast on Thursday. Show Your True Colours Day evolved from the students in The School Image Enterprise Team. Our focus is wellbeing and celebrating our individual uniqueness and character.

Term 4 is a busy time for our whole site community. We hope time out for a shared breakfast will act as a celebration of our year as well as provide an opportunity to acknowledge those around us who have provided support and encouragement.

We also look forward to the opportunity to officially recognise our many valued volunteers across our site. Staff will host an afternoon tea Monday 1st December at 2pm in our Resource Centre. Invitations will be sent home formally with students this week. We look forward to seeing you there. There are so many successes we achieve at Fairview Park due to the quality of support and dedication we receive from our volunteers.

A reminder that swimming begins in Week 8 for our Reception to Year 5 students. This annual event is subsidised by DECD to keep family payment to a minimum. As part of our Health and Physical Education Program this is a requirement. Please see Janine in the Front Office if there are any financial challenges for your family. We value this program highly and see the joy children experience during participation in the week of activities. If for any health reason your children are not attending please notify the front office (with relevant health documentation) so we can arrange a theory based program for this aspect of Health and Physical Education at school.

A final request for any additional returns for class placement considerations for 2014. Staff have almost completed the allocation of students to 2015 classes. This process is challenging and time consuming. Communication we receive, in writing, prior to the process is taken into account.

I would also like to draw your attention to a final language survey. Students across the school will bring home a letter to seek your opinion on a site language (R – 7). Thankyou to the families who have already contributed to this discussion and planning. Students will use this opportunity to interview you and gather your input. Your support is valued and appreciated with this process.

Warm Regards,

Vanessa Mortimer

Show Your True Colours
Casual Day and Whole School Breakfast

The Fairview Park Primary Students’ ‘School Image Enterprise Team’ has organised a School breakfast as a whole school event for Thursday 20th November 2014.

The aim is to raise awareness for wellbeing as part of the “Are You Ok?” mental health promotion. Students will be focusing on a theme of ‘Show Your True Colours’ to highlight individual students and abilities. Students are encouraged to wear their favourite colours. There is no cost to this colourful breakfast and everyone is invited. This unique activity is going to take place in the hall from 8:30am. Just remember this day/activity is all about showing your true colours and your unique self.
