This term, Area 4 has been taken over by a beanstalk. Our leaves have adjectives which mean “giant” and nouns that come from the story of “Jack and the Beanstalk”. We have read many different versions of the story and written character analyses of the people in the story. We have even tried to grow our own beanstalks!

In our plant diaries we have been talking about our beanstalks. They have grown very long. Oscar

We have been growing beanstalks over these weeks. Mine has grown a lot. Ava

We have been reading lots of Jack and the Beanstalk books. We have grown our own beanstalks. Max

We had to put block letters on our leaves. I did the “golden chicken.” Evie

We have been making beanstalks and growing beanstalks. It was fun making leaves. Guss

I liked growing the beanstalks because they are getting really big. Levi

I liked making the poster because we got to design Jack. We made our own massive beanstalk. Kaicee

My favourite character is the ogre. On my noun leaf I wrote “golden egg”. Jake

This is the rhyme the giant sings. “Fee Fi Fo Fum! I smell the blood of an Englishman. Be he alive or be he dead, I’ll grind his bones to make my bread. Magnus
